

PHOEBE'S RECCOMENDATION LETTER

Attn: To whom it may concern

To whom it may concern:

I have known Phoebe for a year and a half in my capacity as a Director at Chunkie Filmhouse. Phoebe was under my wing as a Creative Intern, helping out to plan, edit and curate videos for all of our company's social media platforms, spanning Tiktok, Instagram and Youtube. She has an excellent eye for detail and aesthetic, and is an ever-curious learner who excelled at her role.

Based on Phoebe's performance, enthusiasm, and talent, she was converted to a full-time Junior Creative Producer and Social Media Manager in my company in record time. In the time that Phoebe was under me, I would rate Phoebe's overall performance as excellent.

Phoebe has a plethora of strengths to offer as an employee and creative. In her full-time role, she fully understood my brand and its target audience, was proactive and independent, and even managed and led several large client projects. Her growth curve was exponential; and yet she maintained a curious mind and humility in collaborating with her peers and her superiors.

Phoebe is always interested in supporting others and bettering the community around her. For example, she initiated and hosted several charity events in our company – such as a student arts sharing for Tao Nan Secondary School and a charity photoshoot for underprivileged residents in Chong Pang CC, graced by Minister Shamugam himself. These are but just two instances of the initiatives Phoebe took when she was at my company.

In conclusion, I would highly recommend Phoebe for your organisation. If her performance in my company is any indication of how she'd perform in your organisation, I am confident she will be an exceptional asset to your team. If you should ever need any additional information you can feel free to contact me at 97774662 or by email at ryan@chunkiefilms.co anytime.

Sincerely,

Ryan Wong
